

[illegible][illegible]

TO THE DEMOCRAT.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

Cholera—Radical Outrages, etc.
(Special Dispatch to the Democrat.)

St. Louis, August 7.

Fourteen cases of cholera were reported upon this day, (the board of health and seven deaths. Nearly all the victims were patients that have come here from other cities, and have been subsisting on vegetable given them by the bachelors around the markets. Several citizens have been attacked but quickly administered to them in time has placed the afflicted out of danger.

The air is very close to-day.

The St. Joseph Herald of the 5th, reports that on Saturday last, at Mayville, Lehigh county, upon the adjournment of the conservative meeting there, a number of radicals, composed of many white men, appeared before the ground armed with pistols and clubs which they brandished in a manner equal to that of the sailors. They immediately commenced an assault upon the radicals, and many white men in the Union party, beating him in almost unnumbered manner.

Col. Prethard, who came to the rescue of the Union party, did not get away until he sought refuge in the house of neighbor. Sheriff C. of the Ky, held several persons in custody, among whom were the suspected, suspicious agitators, and a discarded to make arrests, when he and his assistants, overpowered by the radicals, were severely beaten and forced to surrender.

Jefferson Fletcher is no desirous of having harmony and peace in Missouri, and he has been very active among the farmers to rebel each other. The whole object of the Mayville business, no doubt was to intimidate the conservatives and prevent their having any future success.

Gen John A. Logan is making speech at St. Joseph.

The Denver news of July 24, reports that the cholera has been made dangerous in the mining regions.

The New Englander has extended notice of the arrest and confinement of the nightmarer, a prominent editor in the periodical of Denver, and in the same paper, campaign, and says there is no doubt of his guilt, as the stolen property was found in his possession and given to him.

The property stolen was a large gold watch $250.

A lighter was examined, and it was found in default of $5,000 bail.

FROM MEMPHIS.

Trouble with Jail Birds—The Victim of Water Upon a Them Nucleus—22 cents of Faithless news, &c.
(Special to the Louisville Democrat.)

Memphis, August 7.

The female prisoners confined in the attempted to escape, last night, by digging through the walls, on being discovered, they were taken into custody, and the whole party was brought into the jail, and they were subjected by the warden. Some of the prisoners were taken into custody, and they were subjected by the warden. Some of the prisoners were taken into custody, and they were subjected by the warden.

Jennie Lewis, a young lady who paid a large sum of money for a ticket, on account of faithlessness on the part of Oscar Willis, her lover.

A lady residing on the Raleigh road, went out for fuel, on account of the death of her husband, and the warden is quoted as faithful.

Business is active. The river has fallen 10 inches since last report. Boat going up—Mississippi, Bell-St. Louis. Down stream, Commerce, Hill, Tipton, Julia, North, and other boats.

Frank Winkelman, a well known pilot here to-day.

Specimens of the new cotton crop are coming in. They are very fine.

FROM CINCINNATI.

The Cholera—31 deaths in 24 hours—Steamer Burned.
(Special to the Louisville Democrat.)

Cincinnati, August 7.

The deaths from cholera for the twenty-four hours ending at 9 o'clock this evening were 31, and the number of cases 100.

The disaster to the steamer Tien, lying here, is a general gloom over our community, and much condolence is manifested at the sudden death of Capt. Lawrence.

The steamer Madison was burnt on New Orleans Monday night. It was worth $100,000, and insured in three companies.

Returns received here tonight indicate the death of Duval by a majority 40,000.

FROM PITTSBURG.

The Weather—Petrol Oil Wor Destroyed.
(Special to the Louisville Democrat.)

Pittsburg, August 7.

The weather is about the usual for this rain. Navigation continues as usual. The Petrol Oil works of Woomer Messers & Co., located in Penn township, one of the largest in this county, has been destroyed by fire last night. The loss is $50,000 of stock, and partially insured. The great works, adjoining, was saved with great difficulty.

At the market here, but buyers' sellers are short in their offers.

FROM CLEVELAND.

Port Erie—River, Business and Weather.
(Special to the Louisville Democrat.)

Cleveland, August 7.

The following is our port list for last twenty-four hours:

Arrived from Cleveland: (Cincinnati) Mary Lane, Cincinnati to Memphis; Minerva, Arkansas river to St. Louis; Alva, Peoria, St. Louis to Yorkburg; City of Athens, Cleveland to Memphis, Cincinnati and Johnstown; Cleburne, New York.

Have falling of inches. Weather was cloudy.

The relative humidity of cotton is 70 percent.

FROM CHICAGO.

The Storm—Fears Entertained for the Safety of the Crops in the Northwestern States.
(Special to the Louisville Democrat.)

Chicago, August 7.

It has been raining steadily since five o'clock last night, and there are entertained that the crops which have not yet gathered in the Northwestern States will be seriously damaged.

Speal telegrams from various parts in Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan show that the storm is general.

FROM MAINEVILLE.

The Election.
(Special to the Louisville Democrat.)

Maineville, Ky., August 7.

Nelson county has gone for David Hays major by from four towns to five hundred.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH
FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

Destructive Fire.

[illegible][illegible]

